A brief word from our Judges

Cathy Young, Queensland

My showing career began in the 1980 and also my interest in the racing industry. I moved north of Adelaide as a 14yo to work for Dressage Instructor Marion Malecki. From there I worked at different horse stables including Polo Ponies, Riding Ponies, show Horse stables and Breaking horses In.

Marrying into the Thoroughbred Breeding Industry.

Training and riding racehorses and preparing yearlings for sales all over the country. While doing this also competing up to 5 show horses a year.

Since then I've always had show horses competing from Sydney Royal and shows around NSW, ACT, VIC and SA.

I've been judging since the late 1990s. Judging in QLD, NT, NSW, VIC and SA.

I still have competition horses and probably always will.

Thanking the organisers for giving me the opportunity to judge in WA

Terry Hocking, South Australia

I have been involved in horses most of my life with carriage driving and preparing show jumpers and in the last 10 years concentrating mainly with show horses and breeding stock-riding ponies, derivatives thoroughbreds and warm bloods.

At our property 'Lauriston Park' my partner and I have a team of horses we exhibit all over the country with a lot of success Hacks, Riding Ponies, Arab Derivatives, Dilutes and Welsh and Part Welsh. I do mostly all the led classes and play an integral role in the preparation prior to and at the show.

I hold regular clinics to instruct equestrians to present their animals to royal show standard and these clinics are well represented.

I have been blessed with a wonderful life training, teaching, competing with horses. I have judged extensively for over 15 years and enjoyed every minute of it.

I have judged at many shows across Australia including the SIAC Aust. Miniature Horse and Pony Championships in 2014, many Ag Shows, the Tasmanian SHC Gala in 2019, along with Numerous. SHC HOTY championships.

Thank you, WA, for having me.

Michael Higginbottom – South Australia

I have had an extensive career in showing horses over a 50 year period. I still compete competitively and during my time I have had many horses and competed at Brisbane, Sydney, Adelaide & Melbourne royals as well as hundreds of AG shows across NSW, VIC & SA.

I competed in dressage winning SA FEI HOTY twice and top 10 at the EA NATS on my horse Abracadabra and together we have had many achievements in both halter and ridden.

I have been judging for over 40 years across Australia. I'm passionate about all horse breeds and although I am partial to the Warmbloods I enjoy judging a cross section when given the opportunity. I have been honored to judge Ag shows, many SHC HOTY championships, the Tasmanian SHC GN qualifier in 2019 and the VASA Saddle Horse Championships in 2020.

I look forward to seeing your WA equines and thank you for your consideration for this judging appointment.

Tracey Whitton (nee Palmer) – Western Australia

Tracey has been training and showing for just over 40 years along with members of her family who also bred Paints, Paint Bred, Quarter Horses, Appaloosas and Palouse Ponies.

Being the first person in Western Australia to have won Bronze Centuries

Over the years she has amassed numerous awards for both Halter and Performance including Hi Point Halter Gelding of Australia x 2 with the Paint Horse Association of Australia and many other titles.

She is also active with the local clubs in promoting the Western breeds and supporting breed shows.

Susan Foggerdy, Western Australia

My passion for horses started very young, I was 11 when our family moved to WA from suburban NSW and in the following years bought 5 acres where it all started. I worked at local trotting and TB stables learning all the time. My 1st two horses were brumbies, then I saved and bought my first 3/4 Arabian gelding. I did most disciplines on him from western to dressage, but he excelled in games. This stated a lifelong passion with Arabians. Shangrala Arabians was established in early 1980s, breeding many successful purebred and derivatives. In 2011 I purchased the Welsh A stallion "Elargee Rowen" who sired many lovely Welsh and Arabian ponies.

When my daughter was 8 we purchased our first miniature. We were hooked on the breed and Minielf Miniatures was born. They had many years of showing together and over the years we have had a lot of success. The most rewarding was taking our home bred heart pony Minielf Little Miss to Sydney in 2018 for the AMHS Nationals where she was awarded National Supreme Miniature pony. We still breed miniatures, but are winding down, so I am giving back to a community I love by becoming a level 3 Welsh judge. I have a passion to keep breeds and breed shows alive for our future generations by encouraging the up-and-coming youth. My ponies are shown youth handlers, I love seeing kids and equines enjoying this wonderful sport. I look forward to judging at your show

Thankyou regards Sue Foggerdy
